What are the wild waves saying, sister,
Saying the live-long day?
They are saying, my love, that the Democrats
Will have to get out of the way;
For after a fast of four long years,
You know by the pitiful cry,
The Republican Doctor Tanners
Are after the Government pie.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

Programme of Meeting to Be Held in This City May 21 to 23.

The district conference of the Covington District, M. E. Church, will be held in this city in May, commencing the 21st and closing the 23d. Rev. Amos Boring, P. E., will preside. The meeting promises to be well attended. Rev. Thomas Hanford, pastor of the church in this city, has had a programme of the conference printed and distributed. It is as follows:

TUESDAY, MAY 21.
Opening sermon, at 8 p. m., by Rev. F. P. Fitzgerald.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22.
Devotion at 8:30 a. m., led by Rev. J. H. Foster. Disciplinary business from 9 a. m. to 12 m.

The Railway World.

The C. and O. will give a cheap excursion to Cincinnati shortly.

M. E. Ingalls, President of the C. and O., has bought the Sabin property at Fourth and Main streets, Covington, for $20,000.

The Louisville and Nashville and the Maysville and Big Sandy are contemplating the erection of a handsome union depot at Newport.

The first coal train down over the new road yesterday was the largest single shipment of "black diamonds" ever taken into Cincinnati.

The Huntington Times says a train of six handsome yellow coaches will soon be turned out of the painting department of the C. and O. shops in that city, and put immediately upon the road.

Two thousand men are on the Louisville Southern's extension between Lawrenceburg and Lexington, and Colonel Young says he never saw men work so in all his life. The grading is nearly all completed.

Colonel W. T. Dandridge, of the Kentucky Midland, says the work of construction is progressing as rapidly as is desired, and that the road will be ready for operation in all probability before the contracted time.

The Portsmouth Blade complains that the coaches used on some of the C. and O. trains "look and smell as if they might have been used in the days of Pharaoh." Have patience, Mr. Blade. Wait till the vestibule trains are put on in May.

But forty feet yet remain to be blasted in the great tunnel at Cumberland Gap, and in a few months the L. N. and Norfolk and Western will be making direct connection at that point. Track-layers are following close on the heels of the blasters.

Stock, Field and Farm

Hon. Claude M. Thomas, of Paris, has sold Edgewater Belle for $5,000. She is the dam of Edgemark.

C. G. Balkcom, of Macon, Ga., owns a watermelon patch of 746 acres, the largest in the South, upon which he has spread 112 tons of guano. Cotton is certainly no longer king in the neighborhood of Mr. Balkcom's farm.

Young Jackson, the fine saddle stallion recently bought by McClelland & Brannon, of Lewisburg, has been shown 19 times and took 17 first and 2 second premiums. This is one of the best saddle horses in the State.

The advantage of advertising a stallion through the medium of a journal that devotes much of its space to horse news, and that circulates largely among horse-men, can scarcely be over estimated. Owners of stallions should try the WEEKLY BULLETIN. It will reach farmers throughout Mason and adjoining counties.

Two of the best crops of tobacco that have been sold in Louisville for some time were crops of Charlie Sullivan and Robert T. Gay, of Clark County, which were sold this week. Sullivan sold eleven hogsheads, leaf, lugs and trash at 6½ to 17½ cts. Mr. Gay sold his crop of seven hogsheads at 10½ to 16½ cents.—Winchester Democrat.

The receipts in the Cincinnati tobacco market last week were 928 hogsheads less than the week before, and the offering 426 less. Colory lugs and bright trash were in good demand at satisfactory prices. Low grades were inactive at bad prices. Best Mason County new sold at $14; Pendleton County, $14; Owen County, $17.75; Bluegrass, $15.85; Brown County, $14.50; West Virginia, $13.75.

MR. J. W. SHOWALTER, formerly of this county, is one of the contestants in the international tournament of the American Chess Congress, now in session at New York.

DR. E. L. SOUTHWATE, of Covington, has been chosen to fill the vacancy in the Board of Education of Kentucky Wesleyan College, caused by Dr. J. H. Young, being changed to the Louisville Conference.

"Pure as crystal" is a synonym of the highest excellence. Ballenger's spectacles and eye-glasses are literally "pure as crystal." Being made from minute crystal pebbles, they have an unequalled hardness and brilliancy.

Mrs. NANNIE KENNEY, a native of this city, died a few days since at Paris. She was a daughter of Robert Langhorne, and was married twice, her first husband being Dr. Lewis G. Ray, who died in 1864. She left no children.

McKRELL, the Sutton street drygoods merchant, invites special attention to his immense line of carpets and his fifty and seventy-five cent kid gloves. His entire line of new dress goods is now on exhibition. Call and inspect his stock and get his prices.

CAPTAIN C. W. BOYD and other gentlemen from Ripley and Charleston, W. Va., have slipped into Lancaster, Ohio, on the natural gas boom and secured the right to build an electrical railway. They are also reported as having also made large purchases of outlying real estate, and expect to make a good thing out of the speculation.

The spring meeting of the Kentucky Association begins at Lexington April 24th, and runs to May 8th, and the entries show 500 starters. The outlook for a big meeting and fine sport is first-class. The Kentucky Association is one of the oldest race associations of the country. Mr. W. S. Wagstaff, an old newspaper man, was in Maysville this week, looking after the interests of the coming meeting.

"To DISCONTINUE an advertisement," says John Wanamaker, Philadelphia's great merchant, "is like taking in your sign. If you want to do business, you must let the public know it. Standing advertisements, when changed frequently, are better than reading notices. They look more substantial and business like, and inspire confidence. I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising."

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to clean the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50 cent and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers of real estate have been lodged for record in the County Clerk's office since our last report:

R. M. Wallingford and wife to John Cobb, a lot in Chester; consideration, $55.
Kate Craven and husband to Mima Thornton, the west half of a house and lot on the Fleming pike; consideration, $750.
Henry A. Miller and wife to Anna B. Hunsicker, a lot fronting 23 feet on north side of Second street in Chester; consideration, $230.
Mary A. Smoot and husband to D. A. French, the undivided half interest in 156 acres and 24 poles of land on Lee's Creek; consideration, $75 an acre, cash.
Dennis Lane and wife to James N. Kirk, 17½ acres on the East Fork of Clark's Run; consideration, $1, 40c.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSVILLE.

W. R. Ratliffe and wife, of Sharpsburg, have been visiting relatives in this vicinity. Rain Wednesday night and some snow, but Thursday morning was bright sunshine.

Marshall Hill, of Covington, was a guest at the Stouewall House Wednesday night.

There are several new buildings going up in this place this spring, mostly in Bucktown.

R. W. McClelland, of Lexington, was here a few days last week feeling the wool market.

Another one of John Conley's children died a few days since—a little girl. She has suffered long.

J. D. Peed, who has lately taken up his abode in Maysville, paid this place a short visit recently.

Elder P. W. Sawler, of the Old School Baptists, will preach in this place in the new school building next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Candidates for Assessor are coming around thick and fast. Every man has ample qualifications and can carry every precinct in the county but one.

Miss Ella Metcalfe, in company with Miss Emma Cone, of Maysville, and Miss Cora Campbell, of Indiana, were calling on friends here last Sunday.

Elder F. M. Tindler was called last Tuesday morning to preach a funeral in Harrison County. He will be at his post here Sunday, morning and evening, as usual.

E. M. Tuggle, of Lewisburg, candidate for Assessor, smiled on this place last Tuesday and reports everything quiet but encouraging in his favor. This precinct is for him.

J. A. Jackson is receiving a nice line of early spring goods and is making a special drive on ladies' and children's shoes. He is offering all his woolsen goods at cost for cash. He wants all those indebted to him to come forward and pay their accounts. It takes money to run a dry goods store. A hint to the wise should be sufficient.

The wife of Judge Howard, of this place, who has been poorly and a great sufferer for a long time, died on the 26th instant. Funeral on the 27th. Sermon by Elder Cody at the Baptist Church, after which her remains were placed in our cemetery. She leaves five children to be cared for and the most of them are small. Judge Howard has the sympathy of all in his bereavement.
